VALLS STONE AGE SERIES

The stone series is a texture that provides a magnificent yet subtle feeling when it brings the same ideology into interior design. Its uniqueness combines the sense of nature presenting a charm and majestic grandeur of stone in visual impact as well as every breath inhaling from the overall ambience. The force of the stone age makes it all.

VALLS TRAVERTINE SERIES

Travertine is a popular construction material, with examples reaching back to the Roman Empire. Travertine was used to construct the Roman Coliseum and bathhouses. In the Valls series, the beauty of the material was kept and integrated with modern design finishing. Creates an even more majestic ageing feeling, holding the main tone of the ambience. Ranging from natural to metallic finish with different kinds of textures.
